

finally desisted till the evening. The students, having the sympathy of the authorities, were treated with unusual forbearance by the police, who only kept them within necessary bounds. According to some accounts twenty people were wounded in the cavalry charge outside the Tivoli hall, which the police eventually cleared. The imprisoned committee in the tribune were unable to make themselves heard and hung out a placard announcing that the proceedings were closed.

There is no doubt that the policy of the government is beginning to be strongly assailed.

General Billot, minister of war, is especially the object of attack, and the smallness of the majority in the chamber of deputies today indicates the waning of M. Mellin's influence.

The cabinet was only saved from defeat by the votes of monarchists and Boulangists. The Libre Parole accuses General Billot of illegally spending 150,000 francs of war office funds in bribing the press during the present crisis.

A special service of police has been organized around the residence of Mathieu Dreyfus. Le Sol asserts that M. Zola will call Count Muer, the German ambassador, and Count Tornelli, the Italian ambassador, as witnesses to the innocence of Dreyfus.

JEW-HATERS ELSEWHERE.

Lyons, Jan. 17.—An anti-Jewish student demonstration took place here today with cries of "Down with Dreyfus." The office of Le Peuple, which has supported Zola, was attacked, but the staff made a sortie and drove away the students.

Marseilles, Jan. 17.—A crowd of 2,000 persons made a demonstration here today against the Jews. They cheered the army club, whose officers appeared upon the balcony, about "Vive la France," and displayed the tri-color, which the crowd cheered frantically.

Another crowd paraded the streets with cries of "Death to the Jews," and "Shame upon Zola." They gathered menacingly in front of the synagogue, until the police dispersed them.

HIS ALLEGED CONFESSION

Is Something Dreyfus' Enemies Dare Not Publish.

Paris, Jan. 17.—A semi-official note relative to the demand that the alleged confession of Alfred Dreyfus to M. Le Brun-Renaud should be published, says:

"If the government conceded the demand it would bring under discussion and appear to place in doubt the authority of the Dreyfus decision. Moreover, the government does not consider it has the right to make such a communication, for reasons analogous to those which determined the court martial to try Dreyfus behind closed doors."

Paris, Jan. 17.—There was great excitement in the chamber of deputies today when M. Cavaignac, Republican, demanded a discussion of the semi-official note issued today in which the government declined to make public the alleged confession of Alfred Dreyfus to M. Le Brun-Renaud. Then M. Dreyfus, M. Le Brun-Renaud, and M. Pellieux, declared that if the chamber voted its immediate discussion the cabinet would resign. The house then, by a vote of 210 to 252, adopted a motion shelving the discussion.

The Solr announces that a report embodying the Le Brun-Renaud declaration, to the effect that Dreyfus confessed that he had delivered secret documents to Germany in order to obtain more valuable information in return, really exists, but it asserts that fresh proof of his treason was discovered a few weeks ago.

FOUND DEAD.

Why did he do it? He had everything to live for—happy home, wife, friends, money; but he shot himself through the heart. Why?

He couldn't have given a good reason himself. But everything looked gloomy to him. He was in a gloomy frame of mind. It was the way he looked at that day. He had been living in too much of a hurry, rushing and driving at business, bustling through his meals, cutting short his sleep. His nerves got on edge, his stomach and liver got out of order; he grew dyspeptic and melancholy.

When the digestion is out of order there is little to be gained from the bright side of things, practically there isn't any bright side. This is a dangerous condition to get into. Yet it is easy to get into and mighty hard to get out of it, unless you go about it in the right way.

There is a remedy that has pulled thousands of people right out of this depth of despair. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It acts directly upon the stomach and liver. It restores their natural capacity to nourish and purify the system. It purges away bilious poisons, feeds the nerve-centres with healthy, highly vitalized blood, and drives out the "blue devil" of melancholy and nervousness.

J. L. Warner, No. 1000 O Street, Sacramento, Cal., writes: "During the last few years I have been suffering with dyspepsia, indigestion, loss of appetite, and in San Francisco for several months, but none of the doctors gave me even temporary relief. I have taken a complete course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I have felt many times that I would like to leave this world. I have taken over the sea in the San Francisco Examiner I can across yours, and I now owe my life and present good health to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and four little vials of Pleasant Pellets, which I have entirely well of stomach trouble. Can keep nine hours every night, and am now ready to go to work again."

GENERAL NEWS AGAIN

Wichita Mountain Boomer is Undaunted.

BEFORE GRASS GROWS

That Delectable Land is to be Unlocked.

Navajoe, O. T., Jan. 16.—To the Editor of the Eagle: A scene of beauty is a joy forever. Man is prone to rejoice in nature's beautiful smiles. Where is the soul so callous that would not feel enraptured on gazing midst the mountain tops of the Wichita? The suggestion comes that, here is one of nature's grandest workshops. A beautiful valley stretches out 'twixt the Rainy's and the deciduous slopes of Mt. Scott, Mt. Sheridan and Saddle Mountain. Look at the lovely shades of mountain fir, green against the pink-colored basalt. Then, again, there is the sunlight sparkling in the tiny streams of crystal liquid.

O, ye spirit of William Tell. Come and rejoice that man still has his mountain tops, where the eagle may soar in unrestrained liberty.

But before the twigs of the valley mesquite put forth their green leaves, the quiet mountain fastness will reverberate with the sound of dynamite blasts. The sparkling stream will sparkle clear no longer. The coloring from the sluice box, and the miner's pan and rocker will drive away the poetical dreams and undisturbed reverie of the looker-on, and open to his vision a scene of practical American manhood at work.

This is what we need.

Here lies a country, fertile in its valleys, rich beyond the wildest dream, in its mountains, occupied by a savage, unappreciating people, nature's wonders, its beauties and its values equally unnoticed by them, whilst on its borders are the highest type of God's creation, the Caucasian, waiting, yes, waiting, to cross the Rubicon that leads to this storehouse of nature's wonders.

We may well pause, and ask, why is it so?

It is not for me to judge; but the honest system of good old Greece and the hardy miner of the Wichita, sent the writer of these lines on a mission, only a few short months ago. That mission was to arouse interest in the cause of right and honor. We believe that the Kiowa and Comanche country should be the property of the common people of our beloved land.

I was given an ultimatum to use my best judgment, the one I did.

I have returned to the good friends who sent me forth, as honest a man as when I left them.

I will not speak of my trials and tribulations, nor the privation or misery I underwent in their behalf, for this was done cheerfully, but I will say that truth shall prevail, and when the books of old Father Time are unraveled in the halls of the omnipotent Father at the last day, that justice will be given me.

The Wichita mountain boomers have made their appearance on the stage of life. Let the people be their critics. If we have helped to help others get homes that had them not, or a miner to secure a claim that was without one, then let the liar and slanderer close his vituperation and sneak away like his brother in principle, the thief.

We believe that congress is our friend. All is in their hands. In closing, I will remind them that the eyes of many patriots are turned upon them, Honor, nothing can withstand, Lone a wronged, undaunted land, If the hearts within her be True unto themselves and thee, Thou land of liberty.

ONE VIEW OF FREE HOMES

Speaker Reed Regarded as the Great Obstruction.

Oklahoma City, Jan. 16.—To the Editor of the Eagle: The Union Populist, Republican and Democrat Oklahoma territorial watershed convention which convened at Kingfisher on the 15th inst, was a failure in regard to stated for Oklahoma, and each faction of the fusionists separately proposed to memorialize congress for free homesteads for Oklahoma.

But it will do no good, because Tom Reed, the man in congress, knows that the Democrats in Oklahoma have silver mines in them, and that the Demo-Pops take 25 cents worth of their silver bullion that they mine on their homesteads in Oklahoma territory to the United States mints and have it coined into a silver dollar, free of toll to the Oklahoma farmers, and then they go straight to the United States treasury and exchange their silverdollar for a gold dollar, and that by that means the Demo-Pops realize a profit of 25 per centum on all of their silver bullion produced by them on their farms in Oklahoma.

Another reason why the free home resolutions will do no good, is that it is a question on the ground that the farmers in Oklahoma are too poor to pay for their claims, which plea Boss Tom Reed knows is not true, because a majority of the Oklahoma farmers have silver mines on their claims, upon which they produce large amounts of silver bullion, 25 cents' worth of which as soon as they get it coined into a silver dollar free of toll, they exchange in the United States treasury for gold dollars; and we poor Republicans have to suffer the loss of 25 cents on every silver dollar the Demo-Pops get coined, by their paying back into the United States treasury the 25 cents these Oklahoma silver mine farmers rob the Republicans out of by that means.

Tom Reed knows another thing, too; that the McKinley platform was for free homes and against free coinage of silver, and that the William J. Bryan platform was against free homes and was for free coinage of silver, and that the silver mine farmers of Oklahoma were in the majority of the votes polled in Oklahoma for on Hon. D. T. Flynn for free homes and on Rev. J. Y. Callahan

Liver Trouble

When the yellow flag of quarantine is hoisted over a dwelling it means disease and danger. So when the yellow flag flies in the face—when the cheek is sallow and the clear white of the eye is dyed saffron—there is danger. It is liver trouble. The liver is one of the most important organs of the body. On the proper discharge of its functions depend human health and happiness. When the liver fails of its duty, poisons at once begin to generate, and other organs of the body become involved. Never neglect the liver if you value health. If you are suffering from liver trouble, begin at once the use of AYER'S PILLS and you will find prompt relief and permanent cure.

"I was so weakened by liver trouble that I could scarcely lift my head. While in this condition I began the use of Ayer's Pills, and finding almost immediate benefit, continued their use until I was cured of my complaint."

Take No Chances With Your Liver

for free coinage of silver and against free homesteads; and for these reasons the boss in congress, Tom Reed, will take special pains to prevent the enactment of a law that will give the silver mine, bullion farmers of Oklahoma, free homesteads.

The only thing that is bad about what Tom Reed will do in congress, is that we poor Republican homesteaders in Oklahoma will not obtain free homes because the majority of the farmers in Oklahoma are rich, by having silver mines on their homesteads, and they can afford to pay the United States government for their homes.

If we Republicans can manage to stave off the payment for our claims another year, and cause the Pops to mine out all of the silver bullion there is on their farms in Oklahoma, during this year, and then elect a Republican delegate to congress from Oklahoma, Tom Reed will get a free home law enacted in congress, which will save us Republicans and give the Pops their homes free; but the Pops have no sense and they may prevent us Republicans as well as themselves from obtaining free homes, by sending another Pop delegate to congress.

But a great many of the Pops have, like Paul, received eight by the scales falling from their eyes, and they can see that the silver mines on their claims are a delusion, and about 25 per centum of the Democrats are honest and are desirous to overcome their fanatical prejudices of voting any ticket that pretends to be a Democratic, and for these reasons the Oklahoma farmers will elect a Republican delegate to congress at the next election, and after that is done Boss Tom Reed's heart will soften and we will get free homes.

Speaker Mason Appoints an Anti-Homestead Committee.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 16.—Speaker Mason of the house of representatives this afternoon appointed the committee to investigate the alleged attempt to bribe Representative Otis of Hamilton county to vote for Marcus A. Hanna for senator. The committee is composed of Rep. Speller, Chairman, and Messrs. Correll, Speller, Rankin of Hamilton, Boxwell of Warren, Rankin of Fayette and Kenney of Mercer.

Speller and Kenney are Democrats, and voted for McKisson. The other three members are Republicans, but Rutan voted an anti-Homestead committee. The committee met tonight and elected Mr. Rutan chairman and Mr. Speller secretary.

A sub-committee was also appointed to call on the investigating committee of the senate and arrange for joint sessions. This arrangement will probably be effected, as it would only serve to complicate matters if the committees acted separately. A joint session will probably be held tomorrow, when a plan of procedure will be agreed upon. The senate committee has already fixed a time for beginning its investigations.

Hot Race With the Thermometer at Thirty-Five Below.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 17.—With the thermometer 30 degrees below zero, a midnight race over thirty-five miles or sought mountain country in the heart of the Klondike, has earned for George Graham, a Shelton logger, of staking off overlooked and unregistered placer claims valued at $200,000.

Graham was at the Canadian register's office on the afternoon of November 15, when a man rushed in and filed a claim on French Pete Creek, which adjoins the richest part of El Dorado. He had discovered that in the rush to stake the Klondike district five claims on French Pete Creek had been overlooked. Graham rushed to locate the others, having given the tip to three of his friends. They were followed in a wild race by 200 other miners, but succeeded in getting on the coveted ground first.

Dawson City has received no regular mail since last August. Both American and Canadian mail has been delayed. Their respective governments have argued them so far as mail facilities are concerned. Many of the miners have paid $100 per letter to Dawson to have mail brought out to relatives and friends. Generally this has been carried through to the sound cities, though one or two parties report that some of the mail was discarded by the carriers and is to be found scattered along the upper Yukon and the lakes.

ARKANSAS JAIL BREAK

Looses a Horde of Indian Territory Bad Men.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—A special from Valley View, Ky., says: Dora Richardson Clay, bespattered with mud, her hair disheveled and scarcely able to stand, has returned to White Hall. She was met at the yard gate by Jim Luttrell, who let her in. Luttrell says the old man held his wife in close embrace for several minutes and then led her into the house. He thinks General Clay will not allow Dora to leave White Hall again. It is generally believed that the general will have Clail Richardson arrested for shooting at Dora, and will prosecute him to the fullest extent of the law.

BAD MEN BREAK OUT.

Silom Springs, Ark., Jan. 17.—Through a wholesale jail delivery at Bentonville last night, a dozen prisoners gained their liberty. Among them was the notorious Dick Brandt, supposed train robber, burglar, horse thief and murderer. He is wanted in Texas and Indian Territory. Two other prisoners with criminal records were Jim Terrill and Lum Carter. They battered down one of the prison doors and made good their escape. Brandt stole a horse just outside the town limits and made for the Indian Territory. He is a desperate man and is supposed to belong to a gang of territory train robbers. Officers are in pursuit.

MERRY TRIAL BEGINS.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—The trial of Christopher Merry and James Smith, the peddlers charged with the murder of Merry's wife, was begun in Judge Horton's court today. The court room was packed and hundreds were turned away. The crowd outside was as great as at any time during the first trial of the alleged wife-murderer, Luetguert. Marshal Nitt of Eddyville, Ky., and Marshal Wilson of Princeton, Ky., who arrested Merry and Smith, were in court and will be among the first witnesses for the state.

FAMILY SUICIDE COMPACT

Terribly Carried Out by Crazy Grocer Followed by Wife.

New York, Jan. 17.—John Matthews, a retail grocer, some time between last Saturday night and this morning murdered his wife and their two children, a boy 10 years old and a girl of 12, by hacking them to death with a hatchet. Matthews then committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. Before dying, it is believed, he turned on the gas with the intention that asphyxiation should complete his murderous work. The crime was committed in a small bed room in the rear of the store kept by Matthews. The wife and her two children met death while asleep. It is supposed that Matthews had become despondent from pecuniary difficulties.

The tragedy was discovered through the odor of escaping gas, by a milkman. On the floor of the sleeping room the officer who was summoned found the corpse of Matthews. In his hand was a revolver and there was a bullet hole just above his mouth. There were two beds in the room. On one of these lay Matthews' wife. Her head was chopped and mangled almost beyond recognition. On the other bed the two children lay side by side. Their faces, too, were frightfully cut and hacked.

That the murders and suicide were premeditated was evident. Matthews had waited until his wife and children were asleep. Then he stripped himself to the waist, took the hatchet in his hand and brained his wife. After that he attacked her children. For some time Matthews was believed to be dead. He was found by a neighbor who had been intending to end his own life. He had been in the dry goods business further up town and had failed. A few months ago he opened the grocery store and had met with little success. His wife, a pretty little woman, had recently undergone a severe operation. It was these things, evidently, that prompted Matthews to write this letter, which was found open and unaddressed.

"It is a terrible thing I have to do to my word. I promised that all shall keep with me, and delay is no good. If I could only have died alone. I love my wife and little children. I told them I did not want to go in any business; that my mind was gone and I guess that my nerve is all that is left. For five years we have talked the thing over. I always wanted to go out in a boat and accidentally capsize. I knew that otherwise I would have a hard time of it."

From a letter left by Mrs. Matthews to a friend, it was gathered that she was a party to a suicide agreement.

Mrs. Matthews left instructions as to the clothes in which the dead children should be buried and signified the place of interment for the entire family as Highland, N. Y. Matthews was 35 years old.

Remember Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier. Then take only Hood's.

Supreme Court Settles a Life Insurance Question.

Washington, Jan. 17.—In the supreme court of the United States today Justice Harlan handed down an opinion in the case of A. Howard Ritter, executor of William M. Runk, vs. the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, involving the question of whether the heirs of a man who commits suicide when in sound mind can recover an insurance policy. The court held that they could not.

It appears from the facts that Mr. Runk, a resident of Philadelphia, committed suicide within less than a year after increasing his insurance to the extent of $200,000, making an aggregate of $500,000 insurance upon his life. It was shown in the trial that he had written a letter the day before his suicide, stating it was his purpose to put an end to his life so that the insurance money could be collected for the payment of his debts.

In deciding the case Justice Harlan said that when an insurance company entered into a contract to insure a life neither party could be supposed to have suicide in contemplation, and it was not intended

MAYOR OF LINCOLN, N. J.

Mr. Drake Feels It His Duty to Recommend Paine's Celery Compound.

The youngest and most bustling city in the United States—

Founded last April, Lincoln boasts a sewerage system, electric lights, macadamized roads, trolley cars, telephone franchise and a water plant.

From a hamlet to a town—a city, in this incredibly short time, Lincoln has grown with the wonderful progressive-ness looked for only in the West—a splendid example of the indomitable pertinacity of one strong man.

Like most forceful men, Mayor Drake must see results before giving his approval; but when convinced he speaks out his mind without fear or favor of any one.

There is no hesitation among Mayor Drake's friends in saying that Paine's celery compound has been of the utmost help in enabling him to do a prodigious amount of work, and to get rid of that insomnia that at one time resulted from every prolonged effort. Mayor Drake himself says:

Lincoln, Middlesex Co., N. J., Oct. 30, 1892.

Wells, Richardson & Co., Gentlemen—I have been getting Paine's celery compound from our local druggist. After sixteen hours' work each day, I sleep eight hours each night like a baby, and attribute much of the strengthening of my nerves to Paine's celery compound. Yours truly,

SILAS D. DRAKE.

Nothing demoralizes the health sooner or more completely than even the occasional loss of sleep. To start a new day with the brain unrefreshed is like trying to keep a worn-out horse up to his work with the whip instead of by feeding. The incessant brain activity is as if the skull were laid bare and the surface of the brain were struck lightly every few seconds and without a sign of a "let up."

This sleeplessness imperceptibly, but no less surely, destroys the brain cells that are the sources of mental power and the health of every organ of the body. Paine's celery compound gets the nervous system out of this dangerous rut of sleeplessness. It supplies nourishment to the nervous tissues faster than they are worn out, and does not let the nutrition of these delicate parts get low enough to bring on insomnia.

One of the earliest evidences of the final success of Paine's celery compound in curing debility, nervousness, sleeplessness and derangements of liver and kidneys is the increased appetite, the clearer skin, and that indescribable precursor of health, a feeling of "well-being" that takes the place of the tired, languid, melancholy condition.

Secretary Gage and Ex-Secretary Fairchild Give Their Views.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Secretary Gage and Ex-Secretary Fairchild were before the house committee on banking and currency today for a further discussion of the pending plans for currency reform. After considerable controversy among members as to how they were to be questioned, Chairman Walker made the interrogatories. In response to questions by Mr. Walker, Mr. Gage said he had been in the banking business for forty years; for ten years was president of the First National bank of Chicago, with a capital of $500,000 and loans and discounts of $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. He asserted to Mr. Walker's question that he appeared as a banker and financier of long experience, to aid the committee. The chairman asked if it was possible to use paper money and keep it at an equality with coin in purchasing power without the coin on hand. Mr. Gage answered that he thought not. Without the specie on hand there was a tendency to distrust, if not panic, and to a demand for specie.

Mr. Walker's questions took a wide range, going into the technicalities and theories of monetary science; the effect of a raise in interest, the diminishing of loans, etc. Mr. Gage and Mr. Fairchild alternated in giving their views, which in the main covered the general operations of banking and the conditions most conducive to profitable transaction. Mr. Gage said it would be impossible in this country to have a general rate of interest, as prevailed in England, where the Bank of England fixed the rate. Here it varied in the main states, under statutory law, and the banks of the country had never been able to establish on a ruling rate of interest.

Infringements on their Bitters Not Tolerated by U. S. Court.

The United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York, Judge Townsend presiding, handed down an opinion December 21, 1892, granting injunction and accounting, in the suit of The Hostetter Company against Isaac Sommers and Louis Joseph, for infringement of its Trade Mark. The court stated, in its well considered opinion, that the rights accruing to the Hostetter Company, and the liability incurred by all who would rob them, by fraud or misrepresentation, of the well-earned reputation and profits of a business built up by the efforts of half a century. The judge says, in part:

"The complainant is entitled to protection against the appropriation of its trade mark, by any and all unfair and dishonorable means, and a court of equity has power to grant such protection whenever it is satisfied that an attempt has been made by ingenious subterfuges, to invade the rights of an owner of a trade mark."

In the sharp contest between the individual manufacturer, who strives to acquire and retain the fruits of industry and honesty, and the field of cheap rivals, seeking to wrest from him the prize of the public goodwill, the inventive ingenuity of the infringer has evolved a great variety of devices for evading the established rules of fair dealing.
